ROBERSONIAN

Presented by 1960

Robersonville High School

Beta Club

"To every man there openeth
A way, and ways, and a way,
And the high Soul climbs the highway
And the low Soul gropes the low;
And in between on the misty flats,
The rest drift to and fro. . . ."

Dedication

MRS. IRENE ROBERSON

Irene Roberson

Mrs. Irene Roberson has always recognized the necessity of channelling the endeavors of her eighth grade pupils in the direction of intensive preparation for the rigors of secondary education. In accordance with this realization, Mrs. Roberson has maintained a truly professional character in her work over the years and is currently president of the Martin County Classroom Teachers' Association. The influence which Mrs. Roberson brings to bear upon the seemingly endless and complex problems of education will forever be a great asset.

It has been the aim of Mrs. Roberson to improve the intellectual quality of the Robersonville student and to send him to high school well equipped to meet the demands of that more elevated level of learning. Her achievements continually show their favorable effects and will continue to improve students for years to come.

We think it fitting, then, to dedicate the 1960 ROBERSONIAN to MRS. ROBERSON, in sincere appreciation for what she has done for all of us and for the Robersonville school system.

JOYCE ANN LONG

Once a passing star came our way
So happy, so lovely, friendly and gay
You were a wonderful girl, nobly planned
With endurance, foresight and skill to command
An inspiration to others with kindness to give
Having the most loved possession, a life to live
But each soul, no matter how soon 'tis trod
Must take the path thus made by God
But remembering we wish to pause and say
Bless you for the happiness you left along the way.

CLASS PROPHECY

While gazing into her crystal ball, Madame RUBY WHITAKER predicts the future of her former classmates.

Paris, France. Millions of people are crowding the art gallery to view the famous painting of the talented Monsieur FREDDIE POWELL. Crowds are still waiting for the chance to see his lovely portrait of "Beatrice."

Flash! Two well known students, BILL VANDERFORD and STUART WARREN, who finished high school and joined the navy together, have been stationed on an island in the south seas to establish a school for the purpose of teaching native girls how to overcome bashfulness.

STUART NELSON has accepted the position to replace Bob Cummings. He signed a contract for three months today with the Twentieth Century Wolf.

The universally famous JERRY COBURN Dance Studio has succeeded in teaching the Marsians to tango.

Behind a cloud of smoke I see IRVIN JAMES who recently completed his syndicate by acquiring the Mayola Dairy Corporation.

The Nobel Prize was presented to the well known poet, THOMAS MANNING, for his masterpiece, "Joanne."

Field of entertainment. BOBBY BEACH has accepted, along with his fifth "Oscar," the contract to star with Frankenstein as the Werewolf.

"The SAMMY TAYLOR Comedy Hour" is now the number one TV show of the nation.

The CHARLES WARD—Harry James partnership is on the rocks. Rumor has it that Ward is replacing James by popular demand.

Recently appointed by the United States President, J.R. WARD, to fill the vacancies in the Supreme Court were three of our former classmates: CLEO JACKSON, MAURICE COPELAND, and WILLIE TAYLOR.

Nome, Alaska. The astonishing number of male patients at the Nome Memorial Hospital was found to be caused by GWEN BROWN and STEPHANIE HIGHSMITH, new additions to the staff, rather than illnesses.

After long months of thorough investigation, the Seigler murder case was finally brought to a close by the world famous lawyers, LARRY CRIBB and GLENN BELLFLOWER. The full details of the case will be revealed to the press by their secretary, FRANCES STALLS.

Once All-American fullback for Notre Dame, ALMER CLARK, has returned to his home town to become the junior partner in the Hays Construction Company.

Startling the world again with her daring creations, fashion designer RITA AYERS travels to Paris tomorrow where equally famous model EDITH EVERETT will present some of her latest works.

The former Miss LINDA AYERS has just completed plans for her fifth beauty salon. This one will be in Bear Grass where she is now residing with her husband.

World renowned (foot doctor) Doctor WILEY B. ROGERSON, JR., with the aid of his assistant, CORNELIA GRIFFIN, has succeeded in discovering a cure for Plubotanzia, fatal foot disease of India.

The former Miss MELVA BUNTING is now residing in Los Angeles, California, with her husband and two children. Mrs. Alexander is a well known seamstress.

Fairmount Studios, headed by a cast composed entirely of old women, has just found a new start in a west side apartment in the slum district of New York, making sauerkraut out of garlic. BETTY LOU MOORE will co-star with GRACE SWAIN in the picture just released, "There Are More Men on Mars." The picture was directed by O'NEIL WYNN; costumes by CORA LEE KNOX and PEGGY SIMPSON. The plot was written by our sweet GERALDINE JENKINS. It tells the story of how the first rocket reached this heavenly body of men.

Now happily married and residing in Williamston I see three of our former classmates. DONNA KAY MATTHEWS is the favorite teacher among all children, including her own set of twins. DIXIE ROGERSON has accepted a position as laboratory technician in Martin General Hospital. Although busy with her work, Dixie still finds time to make a good home for her husband and children. Psychiatrist CAROLYN JANE MOBLEY has come forth with the astounding analysis of why men are in such a state of mental confusion. The root of the trouble was caused by the exotic perfume, "Intoxication," now worn by all the ladies.

AVA SMITH, giving up her position of teaching chemistry at Duke University, is replacing the retiring THOMAS ADAMS as instructor of the science department at R.H.S.

Washington has just released information that General BURTON JENKINS is drawing up plans for a commercial rocket airliner.

Next I see the business tycoon, RICHARD KEEL, owner of the Keel Cleaners chain stores. Busily puffing away at a cigar, Keel has little time for anything except money, women, and a good time.

BOB GRIMES, with lovely wife FAYE, is now the professor of mathematics at Harvard University. Mrs. Grimes is the efficient secretary to the president of Dawson and Dawson, Inc.

SHELTON EVERETT and wife SHARON, now on their third world cruise, are considering making a permanent home on the French Riviera.

Notorious playboy, WADE TAYLOR, just divorcing his third heiress, has been vacationing in the Alps. Taylor has decided to return to his old job, public accounting.

Impossible? Indeed not. It is crystal clear that there are big things ahead for these seniors of '59-'60.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

We, the graduating class of nineteen hundred and sixty of Robersonville High School, being in full possession of sound mind, memory, and understanding despite four years of hard labor, a little doubtful of our knowledge but full of hopes for the future, do hereby declare this our Last Will and Testament.

We, having served our stretch in this institution, wish to dispose of our rights, possessions, and privileges in this manner:

To Mr. Colombo we leave our sincerest admiration, respect, and gratitude for successfully guiding us through our senior year. If we do not all become famous, it will not be because our principal has not always encouraged us and shown faith in us.

We leave all the suspense and agony of last minute grades to the innocent Juniors, next year's happy (heh, heh) Seniors.

To the incoming Juniors we leave the privilege of planning and financing the Junior-Senior Banquet, also our ability to fall asleep on class and dodge homework.

To the incoming Sophomores we give the idea (which we used so well) of thinking that they need no more studying and should spend all their time in class talking. We present to their teachers one bull whip to persuade them otherwise.

To the Freshmen-to-be we leave the ability to sustain a confused state for the first six months.

We leave these individual bequests:

BETTY LOU MOORE leaves her silly giggles to Blanche Jackson.

BILL VANDERFORD leaves his shyness to Billy Whitley.

RICHARD KEEL leaves his dependability to Russ Williams.

CLEO JACKSON leaves his height to Bonnie Stevenson with the hope that he will grow a few inches taller.

NELIA GRIFFIN leaves her athletic ability to Barbara Rogerson.

O'NEIL WYNN leaves her feminine ways to Carolyn Wynne.

DIXIE ROGERSON and SAMMIE TAYLOR leave their witty personalities to Richard Roberson.

BOBBY BEACH leaves his love for chewing gum to Betty Carol Everett.

FRANCES STALLS and RUBY WHITAKER leave their love for ALL the boys to Etta Mae Bellflower and Dorothy Roberson.

DONNA KAY MATTHEWS and SHARON LEGGETT leave their quiet ways to Joyce Jackson.

MELVA BUNTING and GERALDINE JENKINS leave ability to get a diamond to Phyllis Bemis and Doris Cratt.

JERRY COBURN leaves his be-bop ways and his love for the Tastee Freez to Jimmy Brown.

AVA SMITH leaves her car to Jill Barnhill.

STUART NELSON leaves his safe driving ability to John Tyler and Freddie Nelson.

MIKE WOOLARD leaves his love for cars to Dallas Taylor.

FAYE WYNNE and BOB GRIMES leave their good looks to Tommy Ward and Madge Rogerson.

CAROLYN MOBLEY leaves her friendliness to Betty Jean Taylor.

GWEN BROWN leaves her sweet ways and intellectual ability to Sandra Mobley.

CHARLES WARD leaves his musical talent to Dennis Roberson.

MAURICE COPELAND and WILLIE TAYLOR leave their buses to Clayton Williams and William Taylor.

TOMMY MANNING and FREDDIE POWELL leave their artistic ability to Mary Winifred Everett.

STEPHANIE HIGHSMITH and WILEY ROGERSON leave their mutual compatibility to Celia Clark and Glenn Warren.

J. R. WARD leaves his industriousness to Jimmy Grey.

RITA AYERS leaves her seat in bookkeeping to Linda Wynn.

PEGGY SIMPSON leaves her grades in English to Bobby Fulford and Jerry Copeland.

GRACE SWAIN and WADE TAYLOR leave their settled ways to Lee Roy Bland and Stanley Chesson.

GLENN BELLFLOWER leaves his willingness to work to David Whitley.

CORA LEE KNOX leaves her conservative ways to Brenda Ayers.

LINDA AYERS leaves her first place on all roll books to Shirley Ayers.

ALMER CLARK leaves his "hot chevy" to Brown Keel.

LARRY CRIBB and STUART WARREN leave their ability to satisfy teachers to J. N. Worsley.

GENE ROBERSON leaves his love for the great outdoors to Eugene Clark.

BURTON JENKINS and SHELTON EVERETT leave their curly hair to Paul Smith and Jimmy Wetherington.

In witness whereof we, the Senior Class of Robersonville High School, do set our seal to this our Last Will and Testament.
